SHORT COURSES

EVENTS

JANUARY - JULY 2018

We are delighted to present the January to July 2018 programme of courses, concerts and events at Benslow Music. As always, the programme contains the well-established courses our regular clients know and love. There are also developments across the programme which offer variations on current themes, alongside courses which venture into exciting new areas.

New developments in 2018 include opportunities for singers to find their inner folk song with Hazel Askew and to join Jonathan Willcocks for a weekend of European sacred choral music by Bruckner, Fauré, Mozart and Rachmaninov. For string players we have introduced courses to explore the wealth of music written for violin and cello duo and the Seventeenth-Century String Band led by Judy Tarling and Annette Isserlis. We also hope to excite clarinet players with a brand new course introducing you to jazz playing and improvisation. Additional courses offering the opportunity to try something new include our Try a Nyckelharpa Day, An Introduction to Music Therapy and Murder Mystery at Benslow Music!

There have also been additions to our concert series which in 2018 will include the folk duo Laurel Swift and Hazel Askew, lutenist Alex McCartney and violinist Sebastian Müller. Our series contains some of the top performing artists in the country and across the world, all set in an intimate and friendly atmosphere. With ticket prices at £15 they offer amazing value for money and pre-concert dining opportunities are also available to make your evening even more special.

We hope there is plenty to tempt you in our latest brochure. Please feel free to get in touch and tell us what you think, and let us know if there is anything else you would like to see: all suggestions are welcome.

Many thanks to Heather Hall, one of our Members, for allowing us to use some of her artwork in this brochure. Heather is a keen folk fiddler and has been painting for 40 years. If you would like to join our large family of Members and get involved further with our activities, including with our outreach and engagement programme, please do get in touch.

Guests under 27 on 1 January 2018 are entitled to a 25% discount on basic course fees. This reduction does not apply to room supplements.

Please note that any applications from those under the age of 18 should be discussed with us before booking to ensure that adequate safeguarding procedures are in place.

AM I GOOD ENOUGH?

The answer is probably yes! We pride ourselves on bringing the very best out of our students whatever their level of achievement. We specify an approximate ability range which will help you choose your course, but once happy with that - and we will gladly offer advice - nobody need feel that they are competing with anyone except themselves. Where a course is particularly demanding we say so, and our carefully selected tutors are expert at giving equal attention and respect to everyone. So don't be shy!

ARRIVING AND DEPARTING

Normally we ask guests to check in after about 4pm on the first day of a course. When this is different the course description should say so. If you have made a long journey and expect to arrive early please let us know.

Your welcome pack includes your key, vital information about Benslow Music, a course timetable, delegate list and an evaluation form. Tea, coffee and cake is available until the bar opens at 6pm. Dinner is served at 6.30pm.

If you are likely to arrive late, please let us know as soon as you can and we will make arrangements to set a meal aside for you.

Most courses end with tea and cakes at 4pm on the final day, although the time can slightly vary from course to course.

Day courses begin at 10am. We break for an hour's lunch at 1pm and end around 5pm.

HOW TO GET HERE

Our campus is a five-minute walk from Hitchin train station, which is served by fast, frequent trains from Cambridge, Peterborough and London King's Cross. Road access from the A1(M) and the M1 is swift, and we are within easy reach of Luton and Stansted airports.

SLEEP WELL

You might prefer a traditional Victorian bedroom with a lovely pine floor and antique furnishings, or you might feel more at home in a modern room. Whatever your choice, we offer a varied range of comfortable single and double en-suite and standard rooms. No more than three standard rooms share a bathroom and all standard rooms have a wash basin. If you need more shampoo or shower gel or you have left your toothbrush or razor at home, please ask our Receptionist for help.

INTERNET

We provide campus-wide wifi free of charge.

FOOD AND DRINK

We prepare all our food for main meals on the premises and use official Fairtrade produce wherever we can. Our chefs only use free range eggs, our fish is sustainably sourced and the meat is farm assured, vegetables are all locally sourced. Where possible we use produce grown in our gardens. We can cater for people with special diets, as for example required on medical, religious or ethical grounds, when we are informed in advance (though please note that we cannot accommodate changes, likes or dislikes made on the day) and do our very best to offer alternatives for morning and afternoon breaks and for dessert. Fresh fruit is always available. If you would like a wider selection or prefer specific items then you are welcome to bring your own and we will store them for you. In line with current legislation we state the allergens in each of our dishes and please ask the staff if you are in any doubt.

The Bar, often tended by the popular Ken, is open for business before and after lunch and in the evenings, and is always available to residents and visitors as a lounge area.

THE GARDENS

Our beautiful gardens are an integral part of the Benslow Music experience and provide an inviting space in which to relax and re-gather energies between sessions. You are welcome to wander freely. If Jif, our gardener, happens to be around and if he's not too busy doing something else he will happily tell you about any plant species on the site and no doubt offer off the cuff tips for your own garden. The wooded parts of the grounds contain some magnificent tree specimens. Please take care not to get too close to the bee hives, particularly in swarming season.

OUR MUSIC FACILITIES

We are fortunate to have ten designated rehearsal and practice rooms, including two halls suitable for larger ensembles and public events. Each space includes at least one piano. We also possess a fine Goble harpsichord modelled on a 1727 Christian Zell original as well as virginals, a spinet and a restored Broadwood square piano dating from the 1820s.

BRING A FRIEND

While some people prefer to come to a Benslow Music course alone, we are happy to host non-participating partners. Should your partner wish to observe the course in action, he or she may do so only at the tutor's discretion.

BED AND BREAKFAST

Whether or not you are a musician, you can take advantage of the idyllic calm of Benslow Music's campus simply for the sake of repose. When courses are in residence we are able to provide you with full board if you require it and if space allows. When courses are not in residence we are happy to accommodate clients on a Bed and Breakfast basis. If you are travelling from afar or simply want time to acclimatise to and/or recover from your course then simply add an extra night (or two) to your stay at our competitive Bed and Breakfast rates.

STAY AND PLAY

Our Stay and Play product allows you to come with a few musician friends and play to your heart's content in a dedicated practice room equipped with a piano. All meals are provided so you can focus completely on your musical enjoyment.

GIFT VOUCHERS

Gift vouchers are available from as little as £1 and can be used to pay for courses, concerts, purchases from our shop and membership subscriptions. Please ask at Reception.

PARTY/CONFERENCE HIRE

If you are looking for somewhere to hold that all-important event, we can devise tailor-made residential and non-residential packages. Email info@benslowmusic.org or call us for details.

THE BENSLOW MUSIC LIBRARY

All guests can make use of our extensive music library while on a Benslow Music course.

Members of Benslow Music Trust can use the Library at any time. The Library's holdings include miniature, study and full scores, songs, vocal scores, piano and instrumental pieces, chamber music parts, orchestral and dance band parts, books about music and music magazines. The Library is staffed by volunteers on most afternoons and on Monday mornings.

Any donations to the library are accepted with the proviso that if we do not wish to retain them we can dispose of them through sale, donation or waste recycling.

The catalogue is available on CD for a small charge and on our website.

Please note that items cannot normally be borrowed for the use of a third party (for instance parts for other courses or orchestras). Members can, however, borrow chamber music sets for ensembles in which they are involved.

TRY A NYCKELHARPA DAY

NEW

Sat 6 January

Tutor: Vicki Swan

STANDARD: ALL

The nyckelharpa, a keyed fiddle from Sweden, has the voice of an angel, but the soul of the devil. 12 sympathetic resonating strings, 4 bowed strings, 37 keys with which to change the pitch of the note, it is an incredible instrument. The oldest iconography dates back to the medieval times and has an unbroken line of development up to the modern day. If you've seen or heard a nyckelharpa and would like a go, this workshop is for you. You'll get to be up close and personal with the instrument and learn a few simple tunes. No need to be able to read music, but music will be available. This course is suitable for total beginners.

Tutor website: www.nyckelharpa.me.uk

Fee: £75

Code: 18/101

OFF THE STRING!

Sun 7 January

Tutor: Nic Fallowfield

STANDARD: ELEMENTARY, LOWER INTERMEDIATE

A gentle exploration of violin technique with Nic Fallowfield, first violin of the Tedesca Quartet. On this course he brings his experience and expertise to bear on recurring technical themes; how to be comfortable holding the instrument, how to develop a relaxed bow-hold, how to decide on a fingering, how to cross strings smoothly, how to play spiccato, how to change position with accuracy and confidence, the vexed question of vibrato and so on. Participants will be sent a few passages/short pieces to look at in advance of the course and these will be discussed and dissected on the day and will provide an opportunity to make music together. There will be time also for a 'surgery' in which players can ask advice on specific and personal technical difficulties. As always, this day course begins at 10am and finishes around 5pm with lunch and coffee breaks included.

Fee: £75

Code: 18/102

ELEMENTARY STRINGS

Mon 8 - Wed 10 January

Tutors: Janet Hicks, Willie Hicks

STANDARD: ELEMENTARY

This well-established course offers the perfect opportunity for players of elementary standard to unite and experience the joys of playing in a full ensemble. The tutors will offer technical support, help with sight-reading and give valuable advice on how to progress. Most of the music won't demand more than first position playing and will be in easy keys.

Resident: £280

Non-Resident: £205

VIOLIN DAY WITH SUSANNE STANZELEIT

Sat 13 January

Tutor: Susanne Stanzeleit

STANDARD: ADVANCED

Intended for players of an advanced standard, this enticing day course is led by violinist Susanne Stanzeleit. Participants should bring two well-prepared short pieces of their own choice to work on. Please note that teaching on this course is in masterclass format, which means that individual students will enjoy limited direct teaching time but will learn just as much from watching and listening to fellow students. Numbers will be strictly limited, but Susanne may not have time to work through everything you bring. We begin at 10am and finish not after 5pm, and the fee includes lunch as well as tea, coffee and cake.

AN INTRODUCTION TO STRING CHAMBER MUSIC

Fri 6 - Sun 8 April

Tutors: Nic Fallowfield, Jenny Curtis

STANDARD: LOWER INTERMEDIATE

Following its success last year, Nic and Jenny will lead this course for those who are now feeling confident enough to start learning some of the easier chamber music repertoire but maybe not yet confident to play on their own in a group. The tutors will gently guide participants through the music which will be sent out prior to the course. At the beginning of the course we will all play together, discussing some of the techniques of playing chamber music and answering any questions that may arise. As the course progresses the tutors will create smaller groups which will be individually coached. Nic and Jenny's aim is that by the end of the course participants will have gained enough confidence to hold their own musical line in a small ensemble and be relaxed enough to enjoy the making of music together.

GROUP QUARTETS WITH JONATHAN TROUT

Mon 21 - Thu 24 May

Tutor: Jonathan Trout

STANDARD: UPPER INTERMEDIATE, ADVANCED

Jonathan Trout leads another Group Quartet course, designed for those who are reluctant to tackle the string quartet repertoire one to a part or who just enjoy playing the repertoire en masse. We'd like you to be of at least Grade 6 standard for this course, though we require no formal qualifications. We'll work with Jonathan's usual thoroughness on Mozart's String Quartet No 18 in A major K464 and Brahms' String Sextet No 1 in B flat major Op 18. Please note that you need to bring your own music – any decent edition will do – and we'd like you to number the bars yourself before you arrive. STRING CHAMBER MUSIC: GROWING IN CONFIDENCE

Tue 29 - Thu 31 May

Tutors: Nic Fallowfield, Jenny Curtis

STANDARD: UPPER INTERMEDIATE

This course is designed as a continuation of the Introduction to String Chamber Music course held earlier in the year. It is for those string players who may lack confidence in playing a single line in small ensembles, or for those who don't have the opportunity to play in ensembles with others of similar ability. Nic and Jenny will direct the course in such a way as to encourage participants to feel confident taking responsibility for their own part. The music will be carefully chosen to explore different styles and techniques of playing chamber music and participants will be sent the music prior to the start of the course. As with the Introduction to Chamber Music we will start by all playing together as a big group to familiarise everyone with the music. Then as confidence grows we will split up into smaller groups which will be coached individually. Nic and Jenny aim to give all participants practical guidance in the art of playing chamber music and above all the confidence to play and enjoy this unique musical experience.

Tutors: Nic Fallowfield, Jenny Curtis, Richard Muncey,
Clare Bhabra

STANDARD: UPPER INTERMEDIATE, ADVANCED

Nic Fallowfield and his Tedesca colleagues Jenny Curtis, Richard Muncey and Clare Bhabra, once again bring their innovative approach to Group Quartets, sitting and playing within the group and approaching everything as large-scale chamber music. Individual responsibility and initiative are encouraged, as is discussion on musical issues, rehearsal techniques and so on. This is emphatically NOT a string orchestra! This time we will be working on two works including Beethoven's String Quartet No 7 in F major, Op 59 No 1. On Wednesday 13 June the Tedesca Quartet will give a recital which includes the Beethoven and entry is free to course members. As usual, we ask you to bring your own parts and to number the bars before you come. THE COMPLETE FLAUTIST

Mon 12 - Thu 15 February

Tutor: Joss Campbell

STANDARD: UPPER INTERMEDIATE, ADVANCED

This course offers flautists an opportunity to improve their flute playing with sound and technique workshops, masterclasses and flute choir ensemble playing. Each day will start with a sound session to improve all aspects of tone production followed by sessions studying techniques such as articulation, posture, breathing, phrasing, vibrato, tuning, dynamics and any specific aspects of technique that you may require help with. The first afternoon session will be divided between ensemble playing and timetabled sessions with an accompanist, booked as half hour slots where you may work through repertoire as you wish. The second afternoon session will be an open masterclass with the group. Playing in the masterclass is voluntary and the objective of these sessions is to provide a supportive atmosphere to play and discuss technique and interpretation of your chosen repertoire that will be of benefit to both listeners and performers. The evening session will be a chance to relax and enjoy playing together various arrangements from ballet, film and classical genres giving you the opportunity to work on ensemble skills such as tuning, leading, stagecraft and balance, through the enjoyment of ensemble playing, and guide you as to how to rehearse in such groups. Please let us know in advance whether you will be bringing along a piccolo, alto or bass flute to the flute choir sessions so we may plan appropriate repertoire for the ensemble sessions, along with your approximate playing standard. There will be an optional sharing at the end of the course at 2.30pm on the last day, where participants may perform, to friends and family, their solo repertoire from the masterclasses and ensemble repertoire worked on throughout the course.

BASS CLARINET EXTRAVAGANZA

Fri 6 - Sun 8 April

Tutors: Ian Mitchell, Helen Paskins

STANDARD: UPPER INTERMEDIATE, ADVANCED

A weekend course focusing solely on the bass clarinet which will include a bass clarinet choir (including a special commission) and small ensembles – quartets and trios. There will be an opportunity to play a solo, either unaccompanied or with piano (repertoire suggestions provided if you wish). Participants should have reasonable competence and confidence on the bass clarinet (sorry, no beginners), and there could be the odd challenge. There just may be a little bass clef to tackle, plus some (intentional, we hope) high notes floating around. Whilst low C instruments would be very nice indeed, we would not dream of excluding shorter colleagues. The tutors will give a short recital during the course, and look forward to sharing their knowledge with you in a relaxed but intensive weekend. The course ends with an informal play through of the weekend's work. All repertoire will be supplied for preparation prior to the course.

Participants will have the option of playing in a "masterclass" on the final morning and all will play in ensembles chosen to reinforce technical skills discussed during the weekend. SIGHT SINGING FOR BEGINNERS

Fri 16 - Sun 18 February

Tutor: Barbara Alden

STANDARD: BEGINNER, ELEMENTARY

Do you struggle in your choir because you cannot sing at sight? Does written music seem like a foreign language and inhibit you from auditioning for a choir? Barbara gently introduces you to rhythm and pitch notation, with the help of tonic sol-fa and hand signs. Some basic theory is included with the practical work, and you'll be given hints for further practice.

BEL CANTO: CACCINI TO PUCCINI

Fri 2 - Sun 4 March

Tutors: Nicholas Clapton, Gavin Roberts

STANDARD: UPPER INTERMEDIATE, ADVANCED

Although the term bel canto (beautiful song), has long been associated with the works of such Romantic masters as Rossini, Bellini and Donizetti, the term was only invented in the later 19th century. The tradition of beautiful Italian singing, the rhetorical delivery of text combined with uttermost flexibility of expression and decorative cantabile, is, however, at once much older and much newer, extending from the experimental monodies of the Florentine Camerata and such seminal figures as Caccini, the operas of Monteverdi and Cavalli, the works of Handel and his illustrious contemporaries to the verismo outpourings of Puccini, Mascagni and Leoncavallo. This course will explore this great tradition textually, technically and interpretatively in equal measure, drawing on Dr Clapton's many years of experience as a singer, voice teacher, and writer on music. Participants should bring along two or three prepared pieces to work on.

She helps to correct the habits that can interfere with free-flowing, natural singing, using breathing, posture, articulation and resonance exercises. This is essentially a vocal technique course, but there will also be some simple ensemble singing to begin applying new-found skills. Please be sure to wear loose, comfortable clothing and bring a small hand mirror and a mat or old towel to lie on - some posture and breathing exercises are easier to do on the floor (but not essential if any participants prefer not to). This course is suitable for all standards, including inexperienced singers; it's for anyone wishing to release their voice!

A CHANCE TO SING: THE FABULOUS GERSHWINS

Fri 18 - Sun 20 May

Tutor: Roger Moon

STANDARD: ELEMENTARY, LOWER INTERMEDIATE

Once again Roger Moon will lead from the piano an enjoyable weekend of group singing. Two brothers as unlike as potatoes and tomatoes, who together and separately were among the very greatest of that great era of songwriting talent. One flamboyant, one studious; one working to a good age after the other's tragic early death. No need to be able to read music, although experienced singers have enjoyed the weekend as do beginners and returners: but if you expect a very serious course you might find more of a sing-song! As always, the only prerequisite is a sense of humour. One session will cover other music for a change, and may include participants' requests if made in advance.

THE SEVENTEENTH-CENTURY STRING BAND

Fri 11 - Sun 13 May

Tutors: Judy Tarling, Annette Isserlis

STANDARD: UPPER INTERMEDIATE, ADVANCED

Join historical specialists Judy Tarling (violin) and Annette Isserlis (viola) as we seek to re-create the string band of the 17th-century court, emulating the '24 violons' of Louis XIV which was copied in the theatres of Restoration England. The '24' was composed of varying sizes of members of the violin family, particularly strong in the three viola parts, with equal treble and bass sections. We are seeking an orchestra of baroque string players at A=415 and continuo players (harpsichord, theorbo, baroque guitar) to explore repertoire ranging from Lully to Purcell, including German suites by Fischer and the Austrian Schmelzer. Suites, overtures and dances will all demonstrate how the French dance style raged around Europe.

ADVANCED HARPSICHORD ACCOMPANIMENT

Mon 14 - Wed 16 May

Tutor: Robin Bigwood

STANDARD: UPPER INTERMEDIATE, ADVANCED

This new course is aimed at harpsichordists who have covered the fundamentals of figured bass realisation (perhaps after completing our 'Figuring It Out' course) and are now looking to develop their skills further. In whole-class and small group sessions (and with a real live soloist and bass player on hand for you to work with) you'll develop your expressive range, learn how to vary your approach according to style and period, and cope with everything from intimate solo sonatas to large orchestral works. Participants should be keyboard players fluent in reading treble and bass clefs, and comfortable realising typical baroque basses (eg. Corelli or Handel) from the figures. An ability to sight-read figured basses is an advantage, but not essential - it will be possible to prepare some standard repertoire for the course in advance.

Tutor: Hazel Askew

STANDARD: ELEMENTARY, LOWER/UPPER INTERMEDIATE, ADVANCED

There are a wealth of traditional English folk songs, from lyrical tales of love and loss to ancient dark ballads, jolly tales of sailors and pirates to fantastical tales of the supernatural! Spend the course finding your inner folk singer and exploring stylistic techniques, listening to archive recordings of traditional singers and creating your own vocal harmonies. Workshops will be taught as a class with lots of opportunity for working in smaller groups and learning useful tools for solo singing, and we'll be working alongside the Building a Folk Band course so there will be the chance for collaboration. No previous experience of singing folk songs is required and songs will be learnt by ear with texts provided. The fee also includes a ticket to Laurel Swift and Hazel Askew's concert on Tuesday 30 January

ACCORDION WEEKEND

Fri 6 - Sun 8 April

Tutor: Paul Hutchinson

STANDARD: LOWER/UPPER INTERMEDIATE, ADVANCED

Paul's style of teaching is relaxed and entertaining, but underlying this is his belief that the accordion should be taken more seriously as a beautiful and versatile instrument. His playing is unique in that he uses a lot of sustained left hand notes, block chords, and drones or pedal notes and he also is master of harmony, frequently adding extra lines in the right hand. His playing is inspired by the sound of the church organ and he tries to avoid the old-fashioned limited use of the instrument (note-chords rhythmic "boom-chit" sound) at all costs. He is an experienced teacher who loves teaching and enjoys developing the potential of a group or individual to deepen and improve their musicianship.

THE BENSLOW KLEZMER ORCHESTRATue 29 - Thu 31 May

Tutors: Members of the London Klezmer Quartet

STANDARD: LOWER/UPPER INTERMEDIATE, ADVANCED

The London Klezmer Quartet returns for a course designed for instrumentalists (including keyboard players) from all musical backgrounds, classical, folk or jazz. Applicants must be of at least Grade 4 level (no formal qualifications needed), and an ability to read music helps, though it's not essential. The LKQ's coaching is all about interactive learning. They concentrate on repertoire and attention to melody, accompaniment and ornamentation, and if appropriate will also introduce dance elements to the course. Oral and aural learning methods will help those unfamiliar with it acquaint themselves to the style more quickly – though we hope for many return visitors! Putting music into its historical context is an important part of the course, as is the telling of stories of musicians past and present. The course fee includes entry to the LKQ's concert on Wednesday 30 May.

ACCORDION DAY FOR BEGINNERS

NEW

Sat 2 June

Tutor: Paul Hutchinson

STANDARD: ELEMENTARY, LOWER INTERMEDIATE

Students will be guided through the three main elements of this wonderful instrument, the keyboard, the chord buttons and the bellows. The keyboard is the same as a piano (though of course played vertically!) and so some keyboard skills will be helpful. The left-hand buttons are arranged in a logical sequence and will be fully explained. Paul, an experienced teacher, is used to enabling beginners to synchronise both hands more quickly than is often anticipated. The ability to read simple music is essential.

There will be some pieces by Astor Piazzolla and you will discover more about where he came from and the kind of interpretive freedom needed to fill his music with tango soul straight from Buenos Aires! We're looking for strings, flute, clarinet, piano, bass and bandoneons (or accordions) to recreate the sound of a typical tango orchestra. The arrangements can be made to cater to all levels so if you fancy a bit of tango don't hesitate to join us, whatever your level. Ability to read music necessary.

FREE UP YOUR PLAYING

Mon 23 - Wed 25 April

Tutor: Martin Lawrence

STANDARD: ALL

This course is an exploration of your relationship with your instrument. What drew you to it? What do you love about it? What do you hate? Does it give you pain? Let's see if we can do something about those aching muscles and that tension. We can do better than just making them go away. We can find the underlying reason so they don't come back! Does performing make you nervous? What symptoms do you get? Shaking? Paralysed? Hot? Cold? Distracted? We will look at these and how they can help us. Yes, help! Do you feel stuck with the notes on the page? Wish you could express them better? Wish you could express your musical self better? Let's do it! The course looks at all these issues. There is no set syllabus - it changes with the people there and what they need. The course is like a musical improvisation - with fruitful starting points and sound technique, but flexible and spontaneous, and able to explore emerging pathways thoroughly. It is tailored to your individual needs as they emerge. There will be some yoga, sometimes before breakfast! Please wear loose clothing and prepare a piece to perform.

PLAYING WITH EASE: EXPLORE YOUR POTENTIAL

Sun 3 June

Tutors: Josephine Horder, Yeu Meng Chan

STANDARD: ALL

In this one day workshop inspired by the Feldenkrais Method you will explore how your current habits may be affecting your ease and enjoyment when you play. You will have the opportunity to develop a dynamic balance in sitting or standing which can support and liberate your relationship to your instrument. You will go on to explore how you use your arms and open up pathways to easier movement which can liberate your potential to express yourself through your playing. You will relate easier movement of the arms to what you have learnt about dynamic balance in sitting or standing. This will be a relaxed, non judgmental, explorative workshop. We will lead you through gentle and easy movement sequences which are designed to increase your awareness of unconscious habits and open up fresh possibilities for change and improvement. The Feldenkrais Method uses movement to change the brain, to refresh our self image, to help us learn and improve, and to discover our full potential. Experienced performers, teachers, and Guild certified Feldenkrais Practitioners, Josephine Horder and Yeu Meng Chan are dedicated to improving all aspects of music making and performance.

AN INTRODUCTION TO MUSIC THERAPY

Tue 10 - Thu 12 July

Tutor: Polly Bowler

STANDARD: ALL

Polly Bowler has tutored chamber courses at Benslow Music for over 10 years and now brings her expertise to this new course which offers insight into the allied healthcare profession of music therapy. A mixture of talks, experiential groups and practical workshops will aid participants' understanding of music therapy; its history; the theories that underpin it; the people it helps; and of improvisation, its predominant, musical tool. The exploration of improvisation will potentially offer participants a fresh approach to their instrumental playing as so many musicians feel safest with a sheet of music in front of them. Participants will need their own instruments. Some small percussion will also be available. Please note that the course is not providing participants with therapy, nor does it qualify participants to provide therapy as qualification requires training.

GIVING AND LEGACIES

Benslow Music is probably unique. No other organisation in the world, as far as we can discover, offers as wide a variety of year-round short music courses for non-professionals, delivered by renowned performers and expert teachers in an atmosphere of friendly encouragement. We think this work is important. The practice of music can transform people, and we see that happening at Benslow Music week in, week out.

Thanks to the foresight and generosity of previous benefactors, we are able to run these courses at competitive rates in a home which is secure for as long as we continue to do the job which we're passionate about.

Yet we still walk a financial tightrope, and breaking even on our operation each year is a challenge. And despite many recent improvements to the fabric we know that we also still have much to do on that front.

If you would like to donate a sum, small or large, to help us further our improvement and development please email us at info@benslowmusic.org or call 01462 459446, or look out for further information on our website. And should you feel that we merit remembering in your will, please make time to have a word with your appropriate advisor.

Thank you.
