

PREPARING FOR GRADE 5 THEORY

ONLINE COURSE – THREE DAYS

TUTOR - KATHARINE BRAMLEY

COURSE TIMETABLE (may vary according to need)

Day 1	9.30am – 11.00am	Initial meeting – ironing out any technology issues with Zoom – introductions  Tutor will have emailed course material through in advance  C Clefs Input from tutor – worked examples together
	11.30pm – 1.00pm	Circle of Fifths, time signatures, note and rest values, note groupings Input from tutor – worked examples together with plenty of time for questions
	2.30pm – 4.00pm	More work on time signatures, note and rest values, note groupings
Day 2	9.30am – 11.00am	Pick up any issues from previous day's work  Scales - major, minor and chromatic Input from tutor – worked examples together with plenty of time for questions
	11.30am – 1.00pm	Intervals Input from tutor – worked examples together with plenty of time for questions
	2.30pm – 4.00pm	Transposing instruments and transposition Input from tutor – worked examples together with plenty of time for questions

Day 3

- 9.30am – 11.00am Pick up issues from previous day's work on intervals and transposition, with more worked examples together
- 11.30am – 1.00pm Chords and cadences
Input from tutor – worked examples together with plenty of time for questions
- 2.30pm – 4.00pm Ornaments, Terms and Signs, Instruments,
General revision with plenty of time for questions
- Students will be given a mock exam paper which can be done offline and emailed through to the tutor who will mark and return it with comments.